TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The bill of complaint, of Landis M. Summers and Thelma S. Glisan, Executors of the last will of Andrew J. Summers, late of Frederick County, deceased, and as individuals, and Alice Summers, widow of Andrew J. Summers, respectfully represents:

1. That Andrew J. Summers, late of Frederick County, Maryland, deceased, departed this life, testate, on or about the day of February, 1941, seized and possessed of certain personal property appraised at $618.00 and a part of a farm containing 56 acres of land, more or less, and improvements, which were conveyed to said Andrew J. Summers from Adam C. Stup Executor of Eleanor Stup, by deed dated April 1892, and recorded in Liber J.L.J. No. 1, at folio 341, one of the land records for said Frederick County, and a certified copy of said deed is filed herewith, as part of this complaint, and marked "Exhibit A", and said land was appraised at $3640.00.

2. That said Andrew J. Summers, by his last will and testament, duly filed, probated and recorded in the Office of the Register of Wills for said Frederick County, devised said real estate to his widow, the said Alice Summers for life and then to his nieces and nephew, the said Thelma S. Glisan,
